

Dangerous Prayers #3 LG Questions

1. One of the things that Scott said at the opening of this week's message was that these "Dangerous Prayers" can be intimidating prayers to pray. How have you found this to be true in your own life?
2. What are some ways that we can be intentional about keeping these dangerous prayers as part of our ongoing prayer lives rather than praying them for a week or two and then moving on?
3. Scott spoke about how we often create a false idea of the type of Christian that God can really use...or is excited to send (never has doubts, doesn't seem to sin, can answer all the tough questions) and how they most often don't look like us. Is this something that you have dealt with? How do you work through it?
4. Read Isaiah 6:1-8 together. Can you share about a time when you encountered the Lord? (it doesn't have to look anything like Isaiah's encounter) Talk a little about how experiencing the grace of God has changed your life.
5. In what ways have you struggled to embrace the call of God on your life as a "sent one?" What are some of the hurdles that you have seen in your own life that keep you from fully answering that call?
6. Scott mentioned that the most likely place that you have been sent is out your front door and into your neighborhood. Do you agree with that statement? Why or why not? (If they say they don't agree...press a little to see where they believe they have been sent)
7. Scott closed with 3 ideas of how we can grow in our ability to love and serve our neighbors well. The ideas were to ask God to share His burden for your neighbors, to take the 4 day summer challenge, or to host a block party/cookout for your neighbors. Do any of these ideas grab you in particular?
