

Follow Me

1. When do you first remember Jesus calling you to follow Him?
2. Do you regularly practice listening to Jesus? What are the steps that you take to be able to hear His voice? What do you hear Him saying to you?
3. Do you believe that the position of your heart toward Jesus is similar to the early followers of Christ? Why or why not? How are you working toward being consistently humble and teachable?
4. Between LEARN and LEAN there is often times LOSS. What are some things that you've had to lose in order to be obedient to Jesus?
5. Are you willing to let go of good in order to get to great? What might that look like in your life?
6. When you consider the three portions of the discipleship path (Listen, Learn, Lean) which one comes most naturally for you? Is there one that is particularly strong for you? Or weak?
7. What is one thing that you can do this week that would help you to become a better listener to Jesus and/or better connecting with the mission of His Kingdom?
